

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which were caused by a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman. I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDEN, 1115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs. I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman. I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

LIQUOR RAIDS IN WESTERLY

Violation of Law Proven in Six Cases—Small Fire on Main St.—New Snap Caps for Hydrants—Muster of Jeffers-Built Engines Projected.

Of late the Westerly police committee has evidently taken the chief of police into their confidence, realizing that experience was a necessity in real liquor seizures and prosecutions. Plans were laid to secure evidence of actual sales in several places. This evidence was obtained and the seizure by search warrants was arranged.

After consideration, the police committee deemed it best to have the search warrants prepared and the prosecutions that are to follow to be done by an attorney other than the regular town solicitor, Harry B. Asard, ex-town collector, was engaged and on Friday night six successful liquor raids were made in what is termed "The Allen," in Pierce street and vicinity.

The raids were arranged by Chief of Police Brandegee, the serving officers being himself, Sheriff Wilcox and Policemen Brown and West, assisted by several special constables. The premises visited and searched were those of Antonio Salameo, Joseph Green, Charles Gabrielle, Santo Turano, Salvatore Furio, and another whose name was not known. The search was made at 50 Pierce street, in the search warrant. Beer and liquor were found at each place, seized and carried away by the officers.

The owners of the liquors and vessels will be given opportunity to prove their property in the third district court and failing to do this, the property will be adjudged confiscated to the state and ordered destroyed.

After the procedure, the parties named will be arrested, charged with actual sales and keeping intoxicating liquors with intent to sell. Attorney Asard will be the prosecutor and Chief Brandegee the complainant in each case.

Fire alarm was sent in Saturday afternoon from box 21 for a blaze in a long shed adjoining the rear of the residence of Councilman Clarence Maxson, in Main street. There was quick response by the department and the fire was extinguished before serious damage resulted.

Chief Engineer Cottrell was engaged Saturday afternoon placing newly installed caps on the hydrants in the center of the town. By their aid snap connections can be made and water be sent through the hose without the slightest delay at the hydrant end.

Edward W. Thomson, author of When Lincoln Died and Other Poems, is a political writer in Canada. He has lived a considerable time in the United States and is a contributor to magazines.

Mrs. Hannah Boone Wilson, grandniece of the famous hunter and frontiersman, Daniel Boone, died at her home in Portland, Ore., after a brief illness. In the death of Mrs. Wilson the passing is marked of one of two direct descendants of Boone.

Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court is the owner of perhaps one of the most valuable cats in this country, known as the "sacred cat," which was secured in Burma, and is said to be worth $1,000.

The chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Lloyd George, has made another old phrase, "He's quoted as telling the select committee that he would 'soon rely upon the protective tariff for permanent revenue as upon a tax on the British millionaire'."

Bishop Hartzell, who 13 years ago succeeded the apostolic William Taylor as Methodist missionary bishop in Africa, has been telling the newspaper men at Stamford that Professor Starr's talk about Mr. Roosevelt never coming back alive is sheer nonsense.

General Lord Kitchener's term as commander in chief in India has ended, with the appointment of his successor, General Sir Moore Creagh. Kitchener went to India immediately after finishing up his work. It is reported that he will go home by way of this country.

Prof. Goldwin Smith, now in his 66th year, is still a frequent contributor to the newspapers and magazines. He was eminent as a scholar and a writer when he first went to Canada, 40 years ago. At the age of 24 he was regius professor of modern history at Oxford University.

Mme. Henrietta Benner, who died recently in Brussels, aged 90, had most remarkable eyesight which she attributed to the wisdom of her father. He lost his eyesight when quite young and so required her to remain an hour each day at noon in a totally dark room. She kept up the custom as long as she lived.

Gertrude Atherton has discovered what she calls a "wonderful place" for literary work—Mount Tamalpais, where she is writing daily from three to five thousand words of her next book. As Mount Tamalpais is only a two-hour journey from San Francisco, she relieves the strain of her literary work with occasional visits to the city she loves.

A three-word cablegram received at Winchendon, Mass., from the barren Isle of Molokai, Hawaii, announced the death of Mrs. Walter R. Brinkerhoff, formerly Miss Nellie White, of that town, who three years ago gave up the pleasures that wealth and assured social standing can bring to assist her husband in caring for the lepers among whom he had cast his lot.

The advocates of equal suffrage both in America and England are toasting the Hon. H. E. T. Strangways, formerly prime minister of South Australia. It seems that the anti of England have been deluging the former prime minister with letters and circulars asking him to allow the use of his name as a member of their organization. This he refused.
